

ARTIST MUSE

Since 1989 Janice has worked as a model for well over 200 tutors across all media - life drawing, painting, sculpture, photography, ceramics, illustration, animation, public art, period costume, portraiture, and anatomical drawing. She has a Bachelor of Creative Arts (James Cook University) and majored in sculpture.

SELECTED HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE:

2004 Opened Alison McDonald's Honour's exhibition

Voluptuous Perceptions - and being cast for McDonald's sculpture, The Bather (aka The Hooker) - made entirely out of cup hooks!

2000 Opened the James Cook University Art Exposure exhibition -

Hanging Your Nudes Out to Dry'

2000 Being advised by trio of high school art teachers that their students consistently produced their best life drawings when I was the model.

1994 Invited by graduate art students to participate in a public art performance to represent a 'classical' life model in contrast to a young body-builder.

1992 Portrait painted for the Doug Moran National Portrait Prize by award-winning painter, Yvonne Mills Stanley

1990 Bronze 3x for export to the UK by Anne Green.
